This should be no problem. The information requested is pretty much what we give out in our "normal" discovery packets, minus the calibration + maintenance stuff (which shouldn't be a problem). Probably won't get it out today, but maybe tomorrow or Friday, if that's ok?

Hi Sonja;

Defense requested (and the Court ordered produced) the following stuff regarding [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]:

1. Case file – including all tests, notes, spectra, calibrations + maintenance records of pertinent equipment;
2. Chain of custody documentation for controlled substances.

Is this information that you normally give out? Let me know if you any questions.

Thanks much,

Ingrid
